3. Transfer and involvements of other countries

3.1. Recipients or categories of recipients of the personal data

- University of Oldenburg and institutions involved in UNILEAD 2025
- DAAD
- In case of being accepted: hotels, museums etc.
- Federal ministries
- Partner organisations involved in the funding programme and partners of externally funded scholarship programmes
- universities in whose area of responsibility scholars and lecturers are funded
- processors: External service providers we appoint to provide services, for example in the areas of technical infrastructure or contract-relevant content. We carefully select and regularly review these processors to ensure your privacy is protected. The service providers may use the data only for the purposes specified by us.

3.2. Transfer of personal data to a third country¹/international organisation

The bodies and organisations dealing with your application in the selection procedure, participation and named under item 4 may be based outside the European Union or in another country which is a signatory to the Agreement on the European Economic Area (so-called third countries).

¹ A third country is any country outside the European Union.

In this respect, we cannot rule out the possibility that personal data is transferred to bodies based in third countries that do not guarantee an adequate level of data protection. Therefore, it might occur that a specific use of personal data may not be controlled in whole or in part by DAAD in order to adequately protect personal data. In this respect, DAAD shall ensure that such transmissions occur only to the extent necessary for the individual case and for the purposes stated under item 2 and that due consideration is given to the legitimate interests of the persons insofar as this is within the sphere of influence of DAAD.

If data is otherwise transferred to external service providers whose registered office or place of data processing is not located in a member state of the European Union or in another country which is a signatory to the Agreement on the European Economic Area, we shall ensure before the disclosure (of the data) that, apart from legally permissible exceptions, the recipient either has an adequate level of data protection (e.g. through an adequacy decision by the European Commission) or protection is provided through appropriate guarantees such as self-certification of the recipient for the EU-US Privacy Shield or the stipulation of the so-called EU Standard Contractual Clauses with the recipient. We can provide you with a copy of specifically agreed rules to ensure the appropriate level of data protection. For this purpose, please use our contact details specified under 1.

4. Rights of the data subject

As a data subject, the following rights apply to you:

- Right of access by the data subject (Art. 15 GDPR)
- Right to rectification (Art. 16 GDPR)
- Right to erasure (Art. 17 GDPR)
- Right to restriction of processing (Art. 18 GDPR)
- Right to object (Art. 21 GDPR)
- Right to data portability (Art. 20 GDPR)
- You have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. The withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal. (Art. 7 para. 3 GDPR)
- If you think that the processing of your personal data is not in line with the data protection legislation, please contact the data protection officer (s. Ziff. 1.3.). Furthermore, you have the right to file a complaint with the responsible supervisory authority. The responsible supervisory authority is
